ANDERSON-BUSH.

Mr. Gilbert Christian Anderson announces the approaching marriage of his daughter, Mary Arthur, to Mr. Wade Hampton Bush of St. Louis.

The ceremony will be said on June 9, 1915, at Gable Villa, near LeGrange.

In the above announcement there is the deplorable fact that the marriage of Miss Anderson will take her away from Jackson for her future home. She is so prominent in the active club life of the city, literary, musical and social, so affable, capable and dependable that she has grown to be considered a vital and indispensable factor and Jackson will be loathe to give her up.

The wedding will be celebrated in the old home of her maternal grandmother—Gable Villa—two miles out from LeGrange where Miss Anderson was for the week previous. A most fitting setting for the sacred incident which means so much in her life, as the old home is endeared to her through many memories and is now the residence of her mother's elder brother, Mr. Baker Jones Turner. It will be a high noon wedding characterized by simplicity and the guest list will be limited.

The above was taken from the Jackson, Tenn., paper and will be of interest to the friends of the Bush family.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the neighbors, and all friends of Lancaster, and vicinity, for flowers and for their help, and sympathy extended us in our great sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cross.

GERMANY MUST GUARANTEE LIVES OF NEUTRALS.

Germany must guarantee the safety of neutrals at sea in prompt fashion according to the decision reached Tuesday by President Wilson and his Cabinet. If this question is satisfactorily answered the United States will then be ready to discuss the features concerning the Lusitania case through diplomatic channels. The note announcing this Government's stand will be prepared by President Wilson personally and probably be transmitted to Berlin before the end of the week.

A GOOD CAR.

Mr. John S. Baughman, of Danville, was in the city Wednesday demonstrating the good qualities of the Hercules car, for which he now has the agency. It looks like a winner and at the price for which it is offered, he should place several in this county.

STANLEY SPEAKS

To Good Crowd At Bryansville.

Although it had only been advertised for two days, Mr. A. O. Stanley spoke to a large and enthusiastic audience at Bryansville Wednesday afternoon. It is now conceded that he will carry Garrard county by an overwhelming majority. He was ably introduced by Mr. Robert Dunn of Danville.

POPULAR MATRON ILL.

The friends of Mrs. Lena Rigney Burnside, were shocked last Saturday evening, when they heard that she was seriously ill. She had been sick for a week, but it was only thought to be a slight indisposition and when it was found that an operation was necessary to save her life, the surprise and shock was indeed great.

After a successful operation Saturday night, her friends are hopeful of her entire recovery. No one has more friends than Mrs. Burnside and it will be gratifying to them to know that she is now improving daily.

SCHOOL NOTES.

(By Wm. F. Miller.)

Monday Evening, two of the seniors will be in the Declamatory Contest.

Thursday night, will be the address given the Seniors and awarding of Diplomas.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered Sunday morning at 11 o'clock school Auditorium.

The final examination will begin tomorrow Friday in the various rooms, and will be given several days for this work.

Several of the Seniors were out of school the first of the week, but we are glad to state all are well and back again.

The Senior Reception will be given on the school campus Friday night, following, which the Seniors will entertain the Juniors and Sophomores.

Mrs. Ethel Darnold, was a very welcome guest at our school last Tuesday. Mrs. Darnold was a member of the Faculty last year, and will always be loved by the entire school.

The public is cordially invited to attend these exercises at the school building. Owing to the lack of space in "School Notes" we were not able to print the entire program but, will be found, in another column of the C. R.

The Seniors, will present their class play, tomorrow night (Friday) at the High School Auditorium at 8 o'clock promptly. Miss Hatcher, deserves much credit, for her kindness shown us in our play. She together with Mr. Caneer have put forth every effort to make it be a success.
